
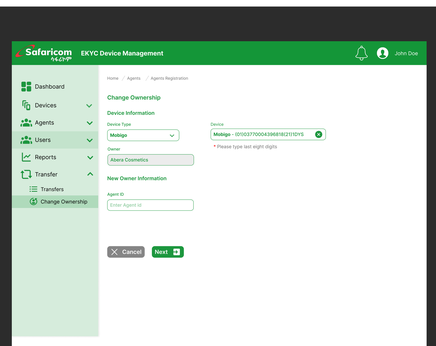
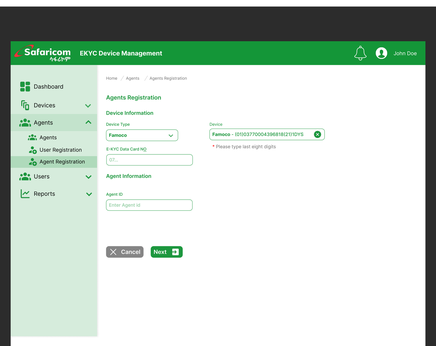
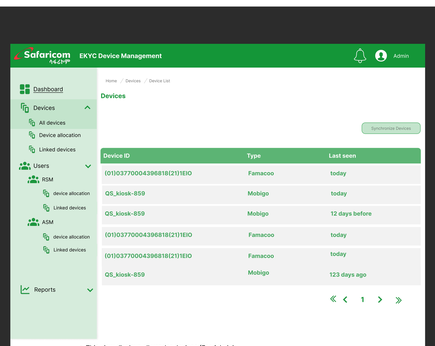
- This Is the stock allocations list page with list of allocations created for the logged in user
- The logged in user can accept(tick icon), reject(x icon) or display more details of specific



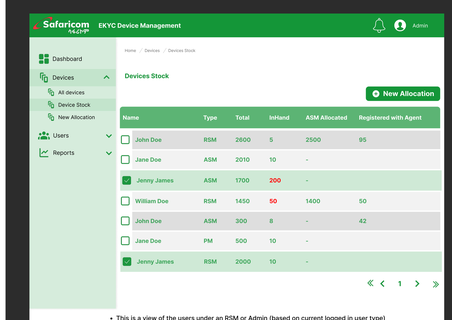
- This view is changing an owner of a device



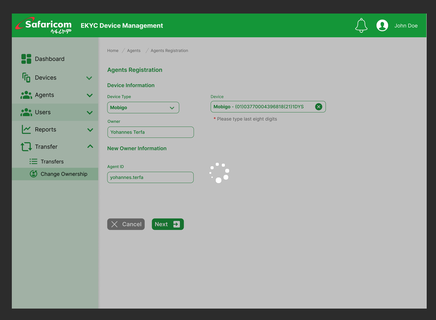
- This view is for new Agent registration (mapping of an agent created on SND platform to a device

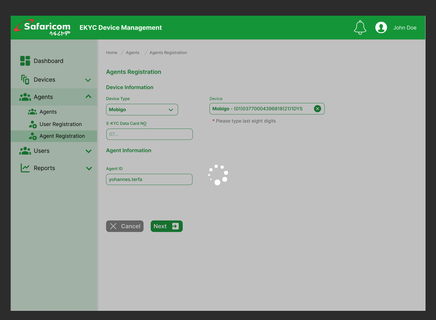


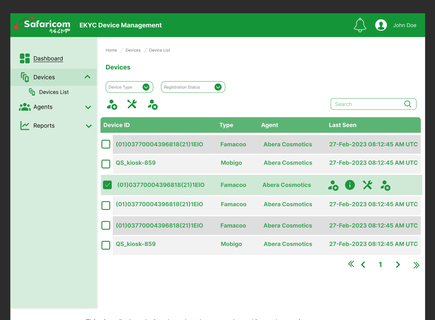
- This view displays all vendor devices (For Admin)
- And also the Admin can initiate the sync of devices from the MDM APIs by clicking on the synchronize devices button



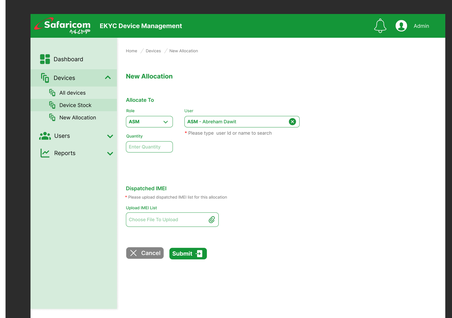
- This is a view of the users under an RSM or Admin (based on current logged in user type) that displays Their Inhand, registered and total allocated devices



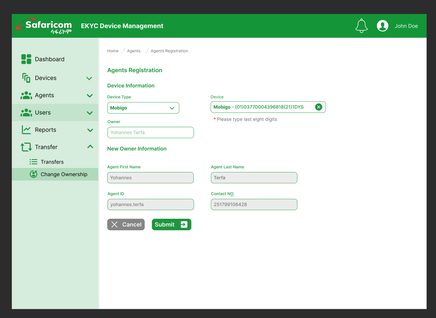


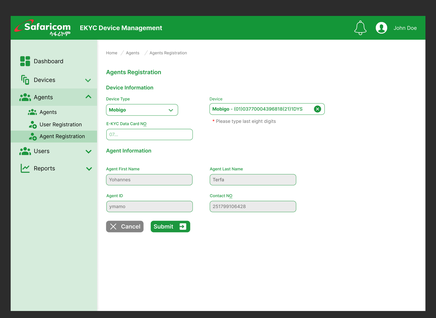


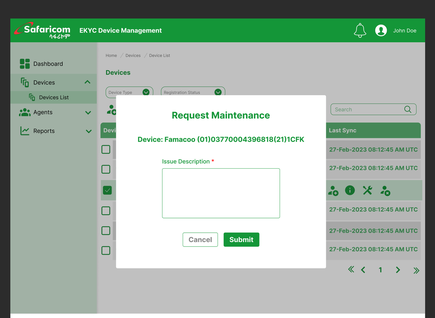
- This view displays devices based on the current logged in user's mapping
- A user views all devices under the logged in user's hierarchy
- The buttons: Info Icon (for details of that device), repair icon (for raising maintenance request), remove user icon (for unlink user use case)



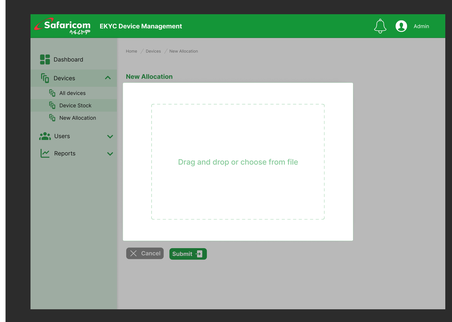
- This view is for creating new allocation for an RSM/ASM (if user is Admin) and ASM only (if user is RSM)

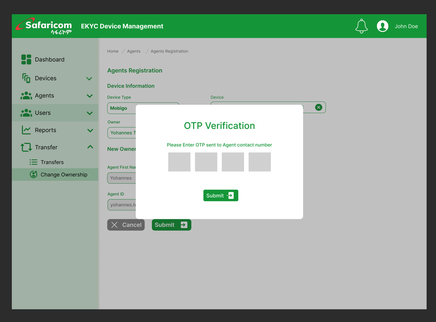


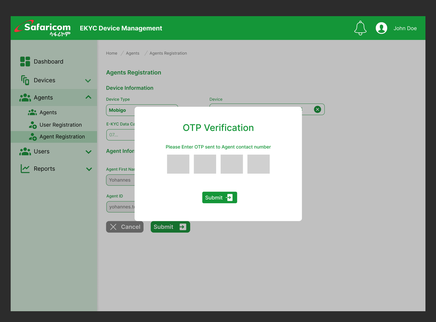


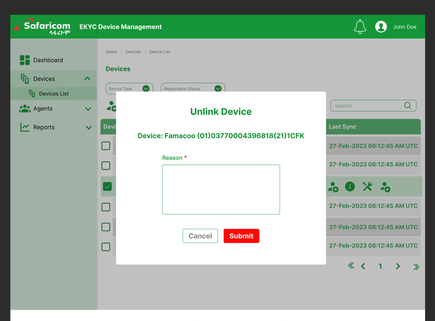


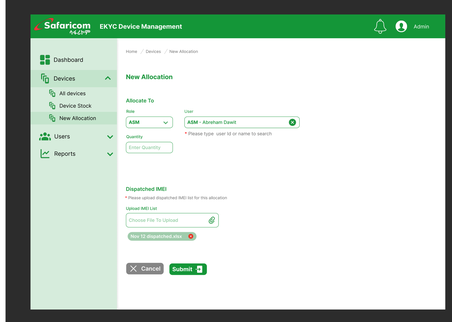
- This view is for submitting maintenance request after entering reason











- This view is for unlinking an agent from a device which accepts a reason